MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 17 June 1968

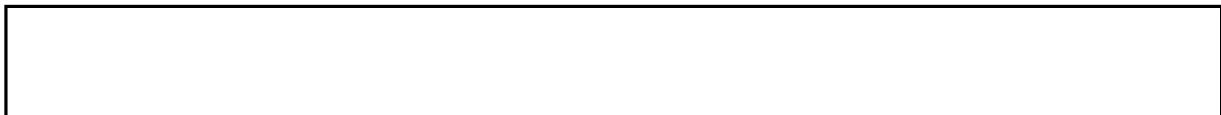

DDCI was in the chair.

DD/I noted that the 29 June issue of Ramparts contains nothing of interest to CIA.

Godfrey advised that the events surrounding the attack on the USS Boston are shrouded in confusion.

DD/S reported that a meeting of CIA officers responsible for building security is being held today in connection with the 19 June Poor People's Solidarity March.

DD/S assured that the traffic snarls caused by the signal at the Highway 123 entrance have been worked out and that henceforth traffic should flow smoothly.
